

Rock Barbers Trivia August 2026

Here are 15 moderately hard trivia questions across sports, geography, history, and science.

Sports

1. Which country won the first-ever FIFA World Cup in 1930?
2. In tennis, what is the term for winning all four Grand Slam tournaments in a single calendar year?
3. Which NBA team drafted Kobe Bryant before trading him to the Los Angeles Lakers?
4. What sport uses the terms “bonspiel” and “hog line”?

Geography

5. What is the capital city of Kazakhstan?
6. Which African country has the most pyramids in the world?
7. Mount Kilimanjaro is located in which country?
8. What is the longest river entirely within the United States?

History

9. Which treaty officially ended World War I?
10. Who was the first emperor of Rome?
11. The ancient city of Machu Picchu was built by which civilization?
12. What year did the Fall of the Berlin Wall occur?

Science

13. What is the hardest natural substance on Earth?
14. Which planet in our solar system has the shortest day?
15. What part of the cell contains the genetic material DNA in eukaryotic organisms?

Answer Key

1. Uruguay
2. Calendar Grand Slam
3. Charlotte Hornets
4. Curling

5. Astana
6. Sudan
7. Tanzania
8. Missouri River
9. Treaty of Versailles
10. Augustus
11. The Incas
12. 1989
13. Diamond
14. Jupiter
15. Nucleus